

FRIENDS OF THE FAIRGROUND HERITAGE TRUST RELAUNCH

The Fairground Heritage Trust was formed in 1986 and has since built a Nationally important collection of fairground equipment. As so much traditional fairground heritage has been lost over the years it is considered paramount that examples of rides, shows, stalls and artwork are preserved for future generations. The Fairground Heritage Trust now operates the Dingles Fairground Heritage Centre in West Devon.

Aims and Objectives

The Friends of The Fairground Heritage Trust is a voluntary organisation. Its aim is to support the Fairground Heritage Trust by providing financial support as we develop the museum facility at the Dingles Fairground Heritage Centre, and to encourage access and enjoyment by all. Friends can provide help in a more personal way by acting as volunteers both within the museum, and providing support at events which the Trust may attend. Members can also join one of the working groups involved in overhauling equipment, cleaning and restoring exhibits. The Trust values the important involvement and work of the Friends Group.

An Opportunity

Joining the Friends of the Fairground Heritage Trust is an opportunity to make a meaningful contribution to the work of the Trust, as well as assisting in fund-raising activities and the organisation of events.
